

Figure 1: This is a distribution of all the predictor variables in the Life Expectancy Data-1 dataset. This graph also shows the outliers, which are the circle markers. They indicate that scores are greater or smaller than the Inter-Quartile Range. The scores are shown on a log 10 based scale due to the large range of data produced from the data set.